

Share

Infinite Scroll Enabled

HARDIN COUNTY, Iowa — The Iowa State Patrol has identified three people killed in a crash in Hardin County Sunday.

According to state patrol crash reports, at approximately 7:30 p.m. Sunday, 25-year-old Spencer Bultman was driving a Chevy Avalanche the wrong way on Highway 20 near S27 when he struck a Chevy Equinox.

Advertisement

Three people, including a child, in the Chevy Equinox died at the scene, according to the patrol. The driver, 44-year-old Cristy Gutierrez, a passenger, 38-year-old Mario Zubia and another passenger, 11-year-old Jessie Gutierrez died in the crash. Six-year-old Isabel Gutierrez was transported via air ambulance to a Des Moines hospital with serious injuries. All four are from Story City.

The patrol said Bultman had minor injuries.

The Iowa State Patrol said that alcohol was a factor in the crash. Charges had yet to be filed in the investigation.

Check the KCCI Breaking News and Weather App for updates on this developing story.

SIGN UP FOR BREAKING NEWS

Get local stories sent straight to your inbox as news breaks.

Privacy Notice